Abe,

I talked to Reid and 1 pm seems to work with everybody so lets talk about Subpart W then. We can use my conference line of (b) (6) - Personal Privacy

I would like Andrea to sit in, too, if she can to see if there may be application to 192.

One thing I was talking with Reid about that would be useful for the discussion is to (b)(5) - Deliberative Process Privilege

For this meeting I want it to be focus on the path forward and not pointing fingers or looking backwards--there has been enough of that. This week Harry was requesting a redline strikeout of previous versions of the preamble. That is not relevant since we've had no economic discussion before so we won't be providing a redline strikeout copy. For today we need to identify 1) what's needed and 2) what will be done to get us there. I would hope that everything we talk about is clarification given the technical direction already provided by Jeff. If there is something different and requiring new technical direction then we need to identify that.

Talk to you at 1 pm.
